

EQM5 Equine Suitability Before Use

Before each lesson, the instructor will examine each horse for any issues regarding lameness or emotional/mental soundness before proceeding with class. If there is any question, the instructor will remove the horse from class and choose a suitable substitute based on rider needs and horse useage. After class the instructor, Herd Manager and Executive Director will examine the horse and develop a plan to address whatever issues there may be.